Ajith, Paamban	-	Once he was the chief bodyguard of Prabhakaran. Related by marriage to Sornalingam alias Shankar. He has political contacts in Tamil Nadu that he had developed when TN politicians visited Prabhakaran. He is anti-KP.
Ainkaran, Sivagnanam	Captain Maththalagu, Shivagnanam Ainkaran	LTTE captain and member of the Black Tigers. He had managed to escape from the Nandakadola safezone area in the last days of the LTTE and had been in hiding. He was finally arrested in Mt.

		Lavinia in May 2010. This arrest led to the recovery of a large cache of Claymore bombs, arms and explosives.
Anton Raja	-	an LTTE spokesman in London who worked from Eelam House, 202 Long Lane, together with Vasantha Raja, the editor of the Tamil Guardian.
Aathithan (Cajan ?)	-	Runs the "Sangathi" LTTE-website and the "Eelamurasu" newspaper in France. They are opposed to the KP-faction. [Athithan was also the name of one of the earliest Tamil journals began by Simon Casie Chetty in 1841)
Ammal, Parvathi	-	Mother of Prabhakaran, and wife of Trivendra Velupillai, Father of Prabhakaran. . Prabhakaran's mother was deported from India in 2003 after a police inquiry of her and husband's clandestine political activities in Tamil Nadu on behalf of the LTTE. She was denied entry to Chennai when she arrived there in April 2010, from Singapore, stated to be for medical treatment. Tamil Diaspora fail to find a sick bed for slain LTTE leader's mother, May 2010
Amuthan	Col. "Suresh"	Perhaps a co-chair of the executive committee of the post-LTTE organization Suresh is from Mannar district. "Amuthan" is a name based on the "anti-Sanskrit" pure Tamil movement. He was at one time the political-wing head for the district when Bhanu was Mannar military commander. He fell foul of Thamilselvan and was sidelined for some years. Then he became a deputy of Bhanu and in charge of the Kittu Artillery unit. He was taken overseas after serious injuries in April 2009. Supporter of KP in the post-LTTE.

Anandarajah,	Aiyya alias Rajah	Born in Chakani, Jaffna on 13th October, 1949

Ponnaiah	alias Aiyanna alias Aana	Anandarajah has operated in many countries using his U.S. passport. It is believed that he managed to enter US. He was being denied "asylum" in Canada. Worked in the US as an accountant, and lived in Europe till end of 2009. he was Prabhakaran's replacement of KP as procurement officer for a period of time, till Jan 2009. Ponnaiah Anandarajah, being one of the LTTE's top arms procurers, had smuggled more than 10,000 tonnes of armaments between 1996 and 2009. Aana is under an intense intelligence hunt through Interpol for arms procurement, passport and trade issues. Balachandran reporting on Anandarajah, Dec 2009
Ananadasangaree, Garry	-	Pro-LTTE activist . Son of Anti-LTTE TULF leader. Garry is the coordinator of the Canadian Tamil Youth Development Centre (CanTYD) under the CTC.
Ananadasangaree, Veerasingham	"Sangaree"	Well known Anti-LTTE TULF leader and senior Tamil politician. Sangaree tried to get the re-constructed Jaffna public library formally opened by the then TULF mayor Sellan Kandaiyan, and fell foul of the LTTE. When Anton Balasingham declared that the TNA parliamentarians were acting according to LTTE wishes and would periodically be summoned to Kilinochchi to receive their orders, Ananadasangaree showed extreme personal courage and rejected it. The Tiger's placed sangaree on the hit list, but Sangaree had the protection of the government accorded to Members of Parliament. Such protection was given to sangaree even after he became an "ex-MP". The shabby treatment given to Ananadasangaree by his erstwhile colleagues of the TNA has been documented by the UTHR(Jaffna). Anandasangaree has urged an "Indian Model" constitution as a solution to the so called "National Problem". More details about him are readily available on the web.
Anbuchelvan	-	He heads the world-wide "Tamil Youth Organization" or TYO. The TYO has tentacles all over the Diaspora youth population, and organized demonstrations against the GOSL in

Balasingham, Anton Stanislaus	Bala, Anton Balasingham	Chief negotiator of the LTTE and confidante of Prabhakaran until his death in Dec. 2006 (liver cancer). He was a British national married to an Australian named "Adele" (Adele Ann Wilby). The latter helped to organized the LTTE women suicide cadre. Anton B was employed at the British Information Services as a Tamil/English translator.His first wife was Pearl Rajasingham, who was also a Tamil/English translator at the British Information Services. Pearl died (from Renal Failure) in

		Blenheim Gardens, Brixton, South London ~1976. Balasingham had developed close personal relations with Eric Solheim, a young and ambitious Norwegian politician. Even after the LTTE was banned in Britain, Bala was allowed to use Britain as a launching pad for LTTE activities. Balasingham's obituary He authored a number of books exposing the ideology of Eelam and claimed that "the only thing there was to negotiate with GOSL were the borders of Eelam". However, he gave the impression of flirting with a federal option in an Oslo meeting. The journalist D. B. S. Jeyaraj claims that Balasingham fooled him for a short time by appearing to take a moderate stand. Balasingham was succeeded as Political commissar by Thamilselvan, a barber who had become Prabhakaran's bodyguard.
Balasingham, Ravindran	-	An LTTE organizer in LA, Mr. Ravindran Balasingham is a software engineer who has lived in the US since the 1990s. He works with Sivanesan. Many wealthy Tamil doctors and Lawyers contribute to the LTTE effort.
Balasubramaniam, Nadarajah	Bala, -	A British LTTE organizer who has floated a party in UK known as the People's Front of Liberation Tigers (PFLT, office located in Lombard Business park, Purley.). In an interview with the Croydon Guardian Mr Balasubramaniam, who calls himself Bala, defended the Tigers' use of suicide bombing. he is an ex-post-office clerk from Thornton Heath. A spokesman for the Electoral Commission, which is in charge of registering political parties in the UK said: "The group was registered with us as a political party on February 10 this year. On March 19 we were made aware of comments in the press attributed to the party leader, saying it was a continuation of the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam, a proscribed organisation. We have temporarily removed them from the register while we investigate this."(Croydon Guardian)
Bavidaran	Bavi, -	Alleged to be an LTTE arms procurer based in Indonesia, and works with an associate known as Rooban.
Benedict, Lenin	Larry (?)	Anti-LTTE activist, associated with the "Canadian

		Democratic Tamil Cultural Association CDTCA), Toronto which seems to have Sinhala members like "Hasalaka Ratnamale". Benedict is also active in the CATPAD (Canadian Tamils for Peace and Democracy) which demands "13th amendment plus". On 19th June 2010, he was instrumental in launching a "Global Sri Lankan Forum" in Toronto, with the objective of countering the Trans-national Eelam organizations.
Boyle, Francis Anthony	-	Strongly pro-LTTE Tamil academic, based in Illinois, University College of Law and strong Anti-Zionist. He is a frequent contributor to the LTTE e-newspaper Tamilnet
Boyle, Michael	-	Academic, based in St Andrews, Scotland. Writes on International Relations and Sri Lankan affairs as well. Some of his writings have been used by Tiger propagandists.
Bouchar, Robert	-	US assistant Secy. of state (Sept. 2006) stated that "though we reject the methods that the Tamil Tigers have used, there are legitimate issues raised by the Tamil community and they have a legitimate desire to control their own lives, to rule their own destinies, and to govern themselves in their homeland." The Tamil apartheid policy of "Exclusive homelands" for Tamils, which have been ethnically cleansed of Muslims and Sinhalese, is misunderstood and mis-represented in the west, just as the "Ilankai Thamil Arasu Kadchi" mis-represented in the 1950s-1970s, its Sovereignty program as "Federalism" in its English publications [It correctly presented its sovereignist program in its Tamil publications. It acted to polarize the two main ethnic communities, and rejected any alliances with political parties (e.g., the LSSP) which looked for ethnic rapprochement]. The western nations mistakenly take the Tamil-federalist bid at its face value.
Boycott Sri Lanka	-	US based activist group, USTPAC have been distributing "Boycott Sri Lanka" leaflets throughout their rallies. Management staff at the Gap, Victoria's Secret and Banana Republic Stores are targeted. TV ads targeting even underwear had been bought by LTTE activists. In Europe GSP+ sales advantage has been targeted.

British Tamil Forum	BTF	This organization is orchestrated by Fr. Emmanuel and hence has strong Catholic backing. It is antagonistic to Rudrakumaran's organization based in the USA. Dr. Velauthapillai Arudkumar, a physician is a committee member of the British Tamil Forum who is alleged to have met KP (Kumar Pathmanathan alias Sivarasan) and Godtabhaya rajapaksa in June 2010.

Canadian Association against genocide, (CAAG)	Association canadienne contre le Génocide (ACCG)	The nature of this organization is easily seen by any one who is familiar with the facts. The web site begins with the FALSE statement that over 300,000 Tamils are being held in Holocaust style concentration camps by the Sri Lanka Government. The under-secretary for the UN, and also independent Tamils from Canada have visited these camps. The camps were used as temporary housing for the internally displaced persons (IDPs) till the Vanni area is freed of the landmines laid by the Tamil tigers. These IDPs escaped in May 2009 from the clutches of the Tamil tigers who were holding the people as a human shield. These camps have schools, banks, hospitals. A number of foreign organizations (e.g., Indian and Japanese Governments) were allowed to have their aid workers in the IDP camps. However, many independent western INGOS who have previously co-habited with the LTTE have NOT been allowed in there. This has raised the wrath of those INGOS who have found themselves excluded from a lucrative justification for their continued presence

C-HART	"Canadian Humanitarian Appeal for Relief of Tamils"	An organization funded and run by Tamil Diaspora members who are sympathetic to the objectives of the banned Liberation Tigers of Eelam (LTTE). HART website Many members of the Tamil Diaspora supportive of the LTTE have been convicted by the US and Canadian governments for extortion of money, raising funds to buy weapons, and engaging in other illegal activities associated with supporting terrorism. Claiming that Tamils are being selectively killed (Genocide) in Sri Lanka and presenting similar assertions are very useful in justifying false immigration claims. Also, maintaining

		an intensity of feeling is very useful for collection of money and for justifying extortion practices of the remaining rump of the LTTE. Several Canadian ex-High Commissioners to Sri Lanka have come forward to debunk such claims. This organization maintains websites, engages in agitation and propaganda. It lobbies parliamentarians, and agitates to get refugees status to Tamils who arrive at the borders of Canada without going through the proper immigration route (c.f., ship which arrived in Victoria). In January 2010, Canadian HART Media Team Coordinator Jessica Chandrashekar accompanied Saradha Nathan, a member of another LTTE front organisation, the Australian Tamil Congress, to Indonesia to visit the so-called asylum-seekers detained in Indonesia. The Australian Tamil Congress is also founder of the pro-LTTE pro-separatist Global Tamil Forum. Canadian HART Jessica Chandrashekar was apprehended trying to smuggle laptops and other documents to those on board. Both she and Saradha Nathan were taken into questioning in Indonesia on suspicion of human trafficking. It is reported that a high-profile LTTE leader who had been deported from Toronto and several other identified LTTE members were on board the vessel. These organisations and their campaign of defamation have the support of certain key players in NGOs such as the International Crisis Group, Human Rights Watch, Reporters without Borders, Amnesty International, "The Real News Network" of Sharmini Peries, and individuals such as Ron Ridenour and Patrick Oâ€™Donoghue.

He studied theology, obtained a degree and a university position in Canada (moved to Montreal, and subsequently to Toronto), thanks to the support of A. J. Wilson and others. His extremely emotional pro-LTTE writings in Canada have been described by, e.g., Dr. Michael Roberts in his article on "Tamil Nationalism" (J. South Asian studies, vol. XXXVII, no. 1,2004). Prof. Roberts says that "Chandrasekaran's picture of LTTE leader velupillai Prabhakaran is a veritable paen of praise in the Kaavya tradition of the Indic world". Chandrakanthan has disrobed and works as a "layman" prof. He has become a component and voice of the Transnational Government of Tamil Eelam (TGTE) and a Director of the Margosa Financial Institution. He has tried to move away from his theological training and now claims to be a "bio-ethicist".

Cheran, Rudhramoorthy -		Spokesperson of a Canadian Tamil Cultural Organization which is believed to be a front Organization of the LTTE. He is an Academic Poet working in Ontario. He has argued for Tamil Eelam and edited the pro-LTTE paper "Sarinihar". Cheran opposed Michael Ignatief's position expressed in "Dangers of Diaspora nationalism". On July 26, 2009 he presented a play "What if the Rain falls", on the day of the so-called Black July, used by the Tamil community to rouse nationalism and anger against the Sinhalese, rather than for reconciliation. He claims that the SL government is practicing Genocide of the Tamils, supports the LTTE, and claims that no Tamil books have been purchased by the Government in Sri Lanka since 1948 (as said in an interview with Anna-Maria Tenement of the CBC). He claims, as do all LTTE propagandists, that the Jaffna Library was burned by the Sri Lankan government, where as it is more likely that the LTTE burnt it to heap discredit on the Sri Lankan government. Chrishanthakumar, Arunachal	A.C. Shanthan,	Activist of the "British Tamil Association". The 52-year-old from Norbury was found guilty of charges relating to conspiracy to receive and receiving property that could be used for terrorism at Kingston Crown Court on April 17. A judge at the Old Bailey jailed him for two years for the conspiracy count and one year for receiving property; the sentences will run concurrently. Deputy Assistant Commissioner John McDowell, head of the Metropolitan Police's counter terrorism command and

		senior national coordinator counter terrorism, said: "Shanthan bought component parts which have been used in the past by the LTTE to make improvised explosive devices. He purchased electrical equipment including circuit boards, GPS and antenna equipment and sent it to Sri Lanka for terrorists to use. He spent more than Â£13,000 in just 14 months on military publications, manuals and guides to be used as reference for military attack planning, yet denied he was involved in any terrorist activity". South Asia Intelligence Review
Cooray, Lakshman	-	SP in Weliweiya area who worked closely with the LTTE Investigations into ministerial assassinations
Credit card skimming and the LTTE	kalla-kappan	One of the approaches used by LTTE agents in western countries is to use credit-card copying, identity theft and forgery, using outlets of groceries, gasoline etc., manned by LTTE agents. Extensive cases in UK, EU and USA have been reported. Even after the fall of the LTTE in 2009, fund gathering seems occur, esp in countries where the LTTE is not banned. In such countries all Tamils, including the majority of law abiding ones get the blame. Thus, the Police commissioner in Perth Australia stated that: "Sri Lankan Tamils were largely behind credit card skimming crimes that had cost about 6000 West Australians more than $6.5 million from EFTPOS machines, Assistant Commissioner Nick Anticich said". See Credit card skimming in Australia, 2010

David, Kumar	Dr.Kumar David, Prof. David, A. K. David	This entry has been seen by Dr. Kumar David in July 2010 We discuss Dr. Kumar David at length as he is typical of a certain genre of Colombo intellectuals who have gone from young progressives to become supporters of right-wing reactionary forces, while still imagining themselves to be "ideologically left-wing". They have mistaken Eelamist racism for revolutionary ardour. They envisage and support a divided Sri Lanka as "a Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka and Eelam as part of the Union of Socialist Republics in South Asia and internationally". Hence this should be regarded as a write up of Kumar-David types, rather than about David himself. Hence the supplementary posting attached to this entry given by the link below: see Write-up on Kumar David
Daya Master	Velayutham Thayanithi	LTTE's media coordinator and Tamilselvam's interpreter. He surrendered to SL forces on 22-April-2009. In 2006 (July 16), during the period where Rajapaksa sought a truce with the Tigers, the SL government-sponsored Daya master's treatment at the Apollo hospital. He returned to Giranikke (Killinochchi) after the treatment. Daya Master alias Velayutham Thayanithi, was one of the senior members of the LTTE. He is from Dambahitiya (Thambasiddy), Puhuleliya (Puloly) West, Peduru thuduva (Point Pedro) in Vaedimuraekiya (Vadamaradchy). Alex Doss	-	LTTE activist born and raised in USA from Indian and Malasian (sri lankan) tamil parents. He is a member of the TGTE south west, and gives his bio as: "One book by Satchi Ponnampalam called Sri Lanka: The Tamil Liberation Struggle was all it took to shake me up and realize that we are a nation under siege. I travelled with family to Tamil Nadu that same year where my cousins would educate me more on the struggle. In 1993 I joined the U.S. Navy and was stationed in San Diego right after high school where I formed a band of brothers and educated them about Tamil Eelam. I would stay there for the next 12 years, attended San Diego City Community College in 1996, contribute historical information to the International Tamil Language Foundation's book called Thirukkural/Culturescape of Tamils, and in 2001 meet someone by the name of Ramalingam Shanmugalingam who taught me how to read and write Tamil. From 2005 onwards, I was introduced to the Tamil American advocacy group by a gentleman by the name of Danton.

		Through Danton, I had the chance to meet a lot of good people who educated me on doing advocacy. Through this group, I've had the chance to travel to Washington, D.C. several times for advocacy and rallies. In the 2009 aftermath of the "mass slaughter" of our people in Killinochchi, Tamil Eelam, I joined USTPAC as a Founding Member, and was later elected to the Governing Council. I'm currently active with the Advocacy Committee, help out occasionally with the Boycott Committee, and have recently formed the Outreach Committee. "

Eliezer, Christie Jeyam	-	Jaffna educated Tamil who became a Univ. of Ceylon Mathematics Professor in the 1950s and Cambridge Fellow. In Colombo he became a favorite of the right-wing Colombo society thorough his lay preaching of Christianity, which was quite unusual for a Scientist. He was married to the daughter of Rev. Handy, and hence was the brother in law of Mithreepala Senanayake, long-standing Cabinet Minister of the SLFP who was an old boy of Jaffna College. Eliezer retired from the La Trobe University, Australia in the 1990s. His politics, influenced by A. J. Wilson's radicalization, as well as the excesses and violence of the JR Jayawardena government, became radicalized in Australia, where he became a leading "Eelam Icon of respectability". He, like Satchi Sri Kantha and other expatriate Tamil intellectuals, seems to have had no difficulty with the increasingly violent path of political eliminations and child conscriptions taken up by the LTTE since the 1980s. Eliezer organized the 1996 "international Tamil Studies conference" which was said to be for drumming up support for the LTTE and giving it respectability. Prabhakaran elected Eliezer to the "Maamanthar" rank in 1997. Eliezer died shortly afterwards. His Sri Lankan students, totally unaware of Eliezer's politics, collected money for an "Eliezer fund" because of their respect for his contributions to teaching Mathematics at the University of Ceylon. . Regarding the 1998 Tamil hero's day Eliezer stated: "Ever present in our hearts and minds is an awareness that so many gallant men and women are dying not only defending our homes, homeland and language, but also standing between the Tamil Eelam nation and annihilation. Once a year the Tamil people

		spread around the globe collectively honour the Tamil heroes." His support for violent politics was unknown to most Sri Lankans. The objective of websites like this is to keep the Sri Lankan community informed.
Elagupillai, V	Elagu	Ex-engineer who worked for Atomic Energy Canada. He was the LTTE activist who organized an LTTE fund raiser in Toronto where Leading Liberals including Paul Martin were present, perhaps without fully realizing the nature of the under-belly of the LTTE. Read the report by John Thompson in The Mackenzie Institute Subsequently Dr. Elagupillai is said to have established a "Pharmacy school" which was claimed to be partly a conduit legitimizing the immigration of selected Tamil candidates to Canada using student visas. Elagupillai has also organized LTTE-oriented "Tamil Studies" conferences under the aegis of the University of Ottawa and the Carlton University. The bio-data of Elagu, as written by him, states that he was born in "Tamil Eelam", and used to sway the Liberal Party by his claims of being able to command a block vote from the Tamil community.

Fernando, Rukshan	-	Pro-western, anti national NGO Director running an outfit known as "Law and society trust".
Francis, Gerard	-	US based pro-LTTE activist, media person, Catholic Tamil background, New York city area, global Tamil forum. His bio reads as: I am a psychiatrist residing in Pennsylvania who is involved with Eelam Tamil activism and humanitarian work along with my wife and children (and also through many organizations). I have been involved with our struggle since the 70's mostly behind the scenes, but, was forced to come out openly last year organizing rallies and protests here in the USA, and elsewhere due to the carnage sanctioned on our people that was largely being ignored by the International community . I see the TGTE as a milestone on this long and arduous path of my people's struggle for justice and self-determination, becoming the apex body of democratically elected representation in the Tamil diaspora, helping us reach our goals and aspirations as a persecuted people. My personal goal is to never forget those who brought us to this point in our struggle; the Leaders, Martyrs, and the many who sacrificed all for our cause. I am certain we'll reach our destiny standing on the shoulders of these giants who came before us. I hope I am worthy of the trust placed in me and promise to carry the torch faithfully, but would be the first to admit that I am only human and constantly struggle with the frailties it bestows on us. Ganeshan, Mano	Ganesan	United National Party (UNP) law maker based in Colombo who is the self-styled "Western Front leader". He won an 207 Freedom Defender award presented by a private US organization for his "civil monitoring committee" work which did not cover civil monitoring in the LTTE-controlled area. Ganeshan has often been accused of secretly supporting the LTTE.

		He has openly visited Killinochchi (Giranikke) but this was during the Cease-Fire Agreement. His November 2008 tour of Canada was claimed to be a collaboration with the LTTE front organizations in Canada. See Ganeshan's tour of Canada, 2008 One of Mr. Ganeshan's aids was found to be closely connected with a suicide bomber who had been captured by the Sri Lankan forces. Global Sri Lankan Forum	GSLF	Formed on 19th June 2010, with Lenin Benedict and Asoka Weerasinghe among others, as founder members, with a view to "countering the ant-Sri lankan activities of the Tamil Diaspora". See also entry under the name "Dawn of Peace", GSLF seems to collaborate with CatPad (canadian tamils for Peace and Democracy), Forum of Sri Lankans, Canadian Srilankans for Peace and Unity (CSLPU), World Tamil Democratic Alliance (WTDA), Sri lankans for United Srilanka, Candian Tamils for Rehabilitation, Reconstruction, and reconciliation (CTRRR).
Global Tamil Forum	GTF	Father S. J. Emmanuel (Germany) is the public face (in 2010), while

		Perinpanayagam Sivaparan alias Nediyan or Nediyan in Oslo is the de facto leader. Global Tamil Forum (GTF) is formed by uniting 15 LTTE controlled Tamil Diaspora organizations around the world from 15 countries. Two of its member organizations, House of Eelam Tamils and Norwegian Council of Eelam Tamils specifically use the word "Ealam" in their organizational names. All 15 claim that the North and East of Sri Lanka are "exclusive homelands of the Tamils", i.e., other ethnic groups who live in those areas have diminished or no claims. The official website of the GTF clearly describes its mission as "To use all resources available to the Tamil Diaspora to establish the Tamil people's right to self-determination and their right to re-establish their nationhood which was taken away by force from them by the succeeding colonial powers including the Sri Lankan government". It is also said that The GTF is "furthering the cause for Provisional Transnational Government of Tamil Eelam", as proposed by the New York based Ealam activist and the one-time legal advisor to the LTTE, Visuvanathan Rudrakumaran. With the help of the United States Tamil Political Action Committee (USTPAC), Visuvanathan Rudrakumaran and his Diaspora followers are trying to achieve their end goal of a separate state in Sri Lanka. Kieth Vaz group promotes meeting of Gordon Brown and Milbrand with GTF, Feb. 2010

Gunaratnam, Mohan	-	Anti-LTTE writer who has accused the Catholic church of complicity with the Tigers.
Gunaseelan, Alles	-	UK based pro-LTTE businessman and activist. he claimed to the BBC that " I feel the Sinhalese want to raze the identity of Tamils"
Gunasekera, Lakshman	-	He is a fellow traveller of the LTTE and Tamil separatism. Lakshman Gunasekera was the former Editor, Sunday Observer during Chandrika B-K's time. CBK held that Sinhla-Buddhist chauvinism must be weakened and a quasi-separatist solution must be found for the problems of the country. CBK had the later-day LTTE spokesman Vasantharaja as Chairman of state Television while Gunasekera manned Lake-House. Gunsekera was

		closely linked to NGO groups that supported similar views, and took an anti Sinhala, anti-Buddhist cultural and cultural position that back-fired. He ran provocative feature articles stating that the Sacred Tooth Relic in Kandy was an animal's tooth, and highlighted a weekly column supporting a separatist Tamil administration. Currently he is heading a diaspora group named "Alert" directed against the Rajapaksa government.
Tisarane Gunasekera	-	Daughter of N. M. Perera's private secretary, Journalist and, allegedly, one-time petite-ami of Dayan Jayatilleke. When Jayatilleke ran into trouble at Kobbekaduwa's funeral, it is alleged that Tisarane's "Sari-pota" was there to shield him. Tisarane has been pro-LTTE by default, and un-reservedly anti-Rajapaksist. Due to her strong aversion to Sinhala-Buddhists, all enemies of the Sinhala-Buddhists are her friends. Her type of journalism, which called for allowing Prabhakaran to rule in his "exclusive Tamil homelands", made some dissident Tamils take up arms against her. Hammond, Stephen	-	Poorly informed Conservative (Wimbledon) British MP who works with the GTF and other LTTE front organizations in the UK.
Hensman, Rohini	-	Anti-LTTE writer and feminist originally from the Sri Lankan Colombo Christian Tamil community and now living in India. She was labeled a "Traitor of the Tamils" by Sathi Sri Kantha. Hensman's point of view is expressed in her recent article The way forward in SL, by Hensman, July 2009
Hoole Rajan	Michael Richard Ratnarajan Hoole	Anti-LTTE academic (mathematics) and son of Rev. Rathnathuari Hoole. Founding member of the University Teachers for Human Rights (Jaffna) (UTHR-J), a civil society group documenting abuses by the LTTE. He is co-author of the classic "The Broken Palmyra" (1989), which details the Tamil community's experience of the armed forces and the LTTE, he has been based in Jaffna initially. He fled to Colombo when Jaffna was under the LTTE. Ranjini Thiranagama, the co-founder of UTHR was assassinated by the LTTE.
Hoole, Ratnajeevan	Jeevan	Controversial Anti-LTTE Tamil academic, and brother of Rajan Hoole. Jeevan Hoole was appointed as the vice-chancellor of the Jaffna University in March 2006. He was declared a spy of the government and his life was threatened by the LTTE as documented by a New York University School of Law website . He was also condemned for being a Christian. However, Hoole himself is reportedly a very abrasive Engineering academic who was having many other fights with the Sri Lankan University authorities as well. Finally he left the country and writes on Sri lankan issues from Drexel University, USA. Hoole seems to support the concept of "exclusive Tamil homelands", within some assortment of Thimpu type resolution. His political sayings include "The Sinhalese ruling clique's mood is to crush the LTTE. Then, upon crushing the LTTE, they say, that all will be right and we Tamils will enjoy democracy. The kind of democracy we will enjoy can be seen in what is happening in the East - more colonization, new Buddhist temples sprouting up everywhere, vote-rigging, more Sinhalization, etc." and also "We need our own territories where we can decide our matters by ourselves. Such territorial division is good for all of us, be it through federalism or outright separation."

		(speech made at a meeting organized by "Canadians for Peace in Toronto", on August 17, 2008). Thus although he may not fully appreciate it, he advocates some form of Apartheid, i.e., race based separate Tamil enclaves

Jananayagam, Janani	Jan -	Believed to be a leading figure in "Tamils against Genocide" . Was careering to run for the EU office as an independent candidate, amy 2009. Indian tamils warn the Tamil Diaspora against Jan J . She polled 0.3% of the votes and lost. The votes are mostly a pro-LTTE Sri-Lankan Tamil ethnic vote. This is about 50,000 at the most. But since it can be delivered en masse , various British politicians have attempted to curry favour with these pro-LTTE front organizations. BBC-news review gives her vote as 0.3% On the other hand Deva Aditya, a Sri lankan who refuses ethnic divisions won with 80,000 votes.
Jayabalan	-	Editor of a Tamil newspaper, London His statement to the BBC in May 2009 is noteworthy: "In a way this is a shock. Because the LTTE has its own myths. Most of the Tamils who really support the LTTE are in shock. But their weakness is that if there is no leadership the organisation will end. I don't see them as freedom fighters. They seem like a limited company owned by a few individuals. They don't have the norms of a liberation organisation. It's a one man-led army and it has come to a very bitter end. But successive Sri Lankan governments have oppressed the Tamil community. Many thought the LTTE were the only option they had. If the Sri Lankan government keeps oppressing Tamils in IDP camps, that anger will come up again."

Jayadevan, Rajasingham	-	pro-LTTE activist based in London, associated with "Tamilaffairs.com" and presumed leader of the "Tamil democratic congress". He has cultivated Labour party figures. He operated a Temple in London alleged to be an LTTE money spinner. Mr. Jayadevan made a number of visits to Killinochchi (Giranikke) when it was under the LTTE. However, he also claimed that he was held in "captivity" by the LTTE when he visited the vanni in 2005. Anton Balasingham and A. C. Shanthan had presumably regarded Jayadevan as a threat to their leadership in the UK. Another motive for the friction was the issue of controlling the Eelap Patheeswara Sivan Temple. Island newspaper interview with Jayadevan He has clashed with Douglas Devananda who has always supported Sri Lankan governments since the time of President Premadasa.
Jesuthasan, Sahab	Jesudasan -	LTTE supporter and Toronto activist. The name "Jesuthasan" is a typical Tamil-Catholic "fusion" name. Jesuthasan was the spokesman for the 'hero's day event on 27 Nov 2009 in Toronto when Sebastian Seeman was deported due to his inflammatory racist polemic.
Jeyarajaah, Elias	-	Works with Rudrakumaran in the "Global Revival" of the Tamil Tigers, and with Tamil church groups, involving "Americans for Peace in Sri Lanka". He is a Biochemist (North Carolina) who graduated (Chemistry B. Sc) from Jaffna University.
Jayawardena, Jayalath	Dr. Jayalath Jeyawardena	Controversial UNP parliamentarian who has been a strong friend of the LTTE. He was the "Rehabilitation, Resettlement and Refugees Minister" in Ranil Wickremasinghe's government. Dr. JJ is also a Catholic activist who takes a keen interest in inter-faith action mainly with Buddhists. Some Buddhist organizations have regarded this as an indirect attempt to take control over Buddhist activism by Catholic activists. He had some measure of success in taking a hand in some Tamil Nadu Buddhist activities. He has visited the LTTE-Vanni many times.

Jeganmohan, G	-	Now active in the Global Tamil Forum, based in Sweden
Rev. Jegasothy, John	-	LTTE-fellow traveler, New South Wales, Australia, Minister at Dulwich Hill-Hurlstone Park Uniting church. He gave his bio in 2010 as: " I graduated from American University\u2019s Washington College of Law in Washington DC. I have worked for the American Red Cross managing disaster relief centers. I spent two and a half years working for the Peace Corps in West Africa developing micro finance projects. I have also worked for Amnesty International as a Human Rights researcher and Government Affairs Liaison. During the last two years I have worked with People for Equality and Relief in Lanka. As a member of PEARL I have attended many of their organized Lobbying days. In the last year when the persecution of Tamils intensified I spent a great deal of time visiting Congressional offices. On these visits I had the opportunity to meet with various Congressional offices, Senate offices, and Congressional committees as well as attending several meetings at the U.S. State Department. I grew up in New York and currently live here. For the past year I have been working closely with Mr. Rudrakumaran. I have been assisting Mr. Rudrakumaran in the planning and organizing the formation of, and elections for, the PTGTE on a volunteer basis. I have also served as the coordinator for the Country Working Group in the United States. In addition, I have worked with the Canadian Tamil youth in connection with the formation of the PTGTE in Canada and was recently invited by the Canadian Tamil Youth Organization to address their meeting. I believe my legal training, advocacy skills and experience will be an invaluable asset to the PTGTE."
Jeevakumar, Kanagaratnam	-	A director of the Canadian Tamil Congress, believed to be a front organization of the LTTE. He is an IT engineer by training and now works for the Canadian government.

		He is based in Ottawa.
Brami Jegan	Brahmi Jegan -	Ms. Jegan, born in the Jaffna peninsula (1980) and came to Australia as a refugee, via Somalia, Tanzania and Malaysia. Ms. Jegan worked for Macquarie Bank and J.P. Morgan of Australia for eight years, and then as a journalist with SBS, and currently(2010) as a communications officer with Union-Aid Abroad-APHEDA. She has presented herself as a political candidate on the green ticket, but with emphasis on immigration issues. She is a niece of Arunachalam Chrishanthakumar -- known as A. C. Shanthan -- who was jailed for two years for aiding the LTTE by acquiring electrical components and military manuals for the terrorist group. However, Ms Jegan remains unapologetic. Ms. Jegan is a supporter of the Tamil asylum-seekers who arrived illegally, and are held at Villawood Detention Centre in Sydney West.

Lawrence, Samuel	-	LTTE activist and A spokes-man for the Ottawa branch of the Canadian Tamil Congress
(LTTE support within the) Liberal Party of Canada	(soutien au LTTE par) Le Parti Liberal du Canada	Liberal Party leader Michael Ignatieff has attempted to clean up the mess of How to handle the Tamil Terrorist problem . However, it is an old cancer. See the entry under Dr. Elagupillai, regarding earlier events when Mr. Paul Martin and Ms. Maria Minna (wittingly or unwittingly) took party in an LTTE fund-raising dinner. the cancer continues to grow even now. Many Liberal MPS who have ridings with significant numbers of Sri-Lankan Tamil voters have ignored the grizzly Tamil-Tiger record of suicide bombings, use of child soldiers, assassinations, terror tactics of targeting civilians, extorting money, forging credit-cards and passports etc. These liberal MPs have even participated in LTTE rallies and fund raisers. The RCMP and CSIS have repeatedly warned the Canadian Government, at least for a decade, that such funds are used for waging war and terror in Sri Lanka. Even today, although the war in Sri Lanka ended in 2009 May, fund collection is going on by extortion, illegal rackets and intimidation. The voice of moderate, peace -loving Tamils in the Toronto area are suppressed by intimidation. (Read entry on how the Uthayan Newspaper in Toronto has been vandalized by pro-LTTE elements)

Nevertheless, since getting the vote is paramount to survival in the world of un-principled politics, many members of the Liberal Party of Canada continue to support the Tiger front organizations. Some of these politicians are:

- Bob Rae, Toronto center
- Jim Karygiannis, Scarborough-Agincourt
- Maria Minna, Beaches-East York
- Patrick Brown, Barrie
- John Cannis, Scarborough Center
- Paul Calandra, Oak Ridges-Markham
- Kristy Duncan, Etobicoke North
- Ruby Dhalla, Brampton-Springdale
- Albina Guaneri, Mississauga East-Cooksville
- DereK Lee, Scarborough-Rouge River
- John McKay, Scarborough-Guildwood
- Robert Oliphant, Don Valley west
- Yasmin Ratansi, Don valley East
- Judy Sgro - North York
- Borys Wrzesnewskyj, Etobicoke Centre

These MPS have made patently incorrect statements in Parliament just to please their pro-LTTE Tamil voters. John McKay presented a petition to parliament from some members of his riding, with little control over the validity of the claims made in the petition. These MPS have gone to rallies, met with foreign LTTE activists like Bryan Seneviratne etc.

Mr. Bob Rae had arranged a "private visit" to Sri Lanka, with individuals to be visited as arranged mostly by his pro-LTTE constituency. When details of his proposed visit came to light, the Sri Lankan government refused to issue a visa (Summer 2009) to Bob Rae, even though Rae had been to Sri Lanka many times before (previously as an official guest, and not as a "private visitor" under the control of the pro-LTTE organizations.

Priyanth Liyanage	Priyantha Liyanage	Worked with Vasantha Raja (see our entry on him) in the BBC-Sanadeshya giving its news and features a pro-LTTE stand. Priyath Liyanage was a care assistant working in a home for the elderly when Vasantha Raja appointed him to succeed him after Chandrika B shamelessly appointed Vasantha Raja as Chairman of Rupavahini. Priyanth L was supported by Bandarage in these activities. It has also been alleged that Paskaralingam (see entry under Paski). and his British associates remunerated these individuals handsomely. These extremely anti-national activities began in the late 1990s, reached a crescendo during Chandrika B's time, and continued till the demise of the British Labour government in 2010. Clearly, the BBC never checked if its program managers had accredited media professionalism.
Logan Logendralingam	Logan	ditor and publisher of Uthayan, a Tamil weekly. He complained in Dec. 2009 that "his newspaper was removed from three shops in the GTA and replaced with pamphlets about the Diaspora referendum because he did not include heavy coverage of the referendum." The Uthayan newspaper office on Progress Rd, Scarborough was vandalized in Feb. 2010, when it carried news of meetings between some members of the Expat Tamil community and the President of SL. March 19th, 2010, CBC report .

McDonagh, Siobhain	-	British Labour party MP who works closely with Kieth Vaz. Report in Sri Lanka newspapers, feb 2010
Mendis, Viraj		Mendis Came to Britian on a 12 month student Visa, and remained in the UK as a refugee claimant. He claimed that the Govt. of Sri Lanka agents would kill him if deported to Sri Lanka and claimed UK refugee status, with the support of UK church groups, and Dr. Nithyanadan of the LTTE. Nevertheless he was forcibly deported in 1989 back to Sri lanka. He married Karen Roberts, a supporter in Manchester and moved from Sri Lanka to Breman Germany. He has carried on pro-LTTE activities from Bremmen, in association with Ranjith Lochbihler alias Ranjith Hennayake. Manchester Evening News, Spt 14, 2004 on Viraj Mendis.

Muthuveloe, Samuel Rajkumar	Dr. Muthuveloe, Sam	based in Milton, Keunes, UK. He is a "Godfather" of various organizations alleged to have pro-LTTE sympathies. He is associated with the charities like Hope outreach UK or HOMSA-UK 21 Lower Stonehayes, Great Linford, Milton Keynes MK14 5ES. Dr. Phyllis Starkey, the Labour MP for Milton Keynes referred to him in the UK Parliamentary debates (9-Feb-2005) to an "orphanage" which functioned in the LTTE area and run with the support of HOMSA UK. Many questions have been raised regarding this orphanage. Thus: "How did this organization get permission to operate inside LTTE-controlled territory? Did the LTTE use this orphanage to train child soldiers and suicide cadre?"
Mylvaganam ,Ramanan	-	Arrested in Canada in 2007, together with Piratheepan Nadarajah for conspiring to smuggle arms for the LTTE.
Muthalitharan, Vinayagamorthy	Karuna	In 2009 Karuna joined the SLFP and became a minister of the Rajapaksa government. He was flown to Mullaitivu (Mooladoova) in May 2009 for

		a definitive identification of the body of Prabhakaran. After his return to Colombo from England he was appointed to parliament under the national list. He went to England under an assumed name and was jailed and deported back to Colombo. Karuna formed the TMVP party and allowed or was forced to let his deputy Pilliyan win the position of chief minister of the Eastern province. Karuna worked with the Rajapaksa forces to defeat the LTTE in the eastern province. When the LTTE failed to control Karuna, it demanded the GOSL to "disarm" Karuna, since the Norwegian CFA required that "paramilitaries" be disarmed.(The LTTE itself was regarded as a paramilitary under the IPKF !). Karuna renounced the LTTE and began to work with the GOSL. This was spurned by the Chandrika government. The LTTE claimed that Karuna's breakup with them was an "internal matter" and that they can handle it, and attempted to "eliminate" the Karuna group. Karuna broke from the LTTE in March 2004 citing discrimination of the LTTE against the Eastern tamils. Karuna was the Head of the Eastern-wing of the LTTE and probably responsible for the Aranthalawa Massacre, as well as the killing of the policemen who surrendered to the LTTE under the agreement between Premadasa and the LTTE.

Nedumaran is President of the Tamil Nationalist Movement and Tamil Eelam Eelam movement handed over to Tamil Diaspora Supporters Co-ordination Committee. His political patronage in the early days of the LTTE included providing large sums of money used for purchasing weapons. See Narayana Swamy's book "Inside an Elusive mind".
NDP, New Democratic Party of Canada (support to LTTE fronts)	PND, (Soutin aux Organism LTTE par) Parti Nouveau Democratique du Canada	NDP ideologues have made the naive assumption that the Tamils are a discriminated minority in Sri Lanka and that the LTTE has arisen as a response to such discrimination. Tamil dissident writers (Rasalaingam, Johnpulle, DBSJayaraj etc.) and independent Historians (Dr. Jane Russell, Oxford) have outlined how the British, following a policy of divide and rule, gave a prominent position to the Tamil minority in Government Power, Education and Trade. The attempt to correct these wrongs, as well as the excesses of Sinhalese extremist groups which arose as a reply to the Tamil sovereignty movement (ILankai Thamil Arasu Kadchi) since Independence have been strongly resisted by wealthy high-caste Tamils and expatriates who have funded a separatist war. The LTTE has followed a doctrine of Tamil apartheid (Exclusive Tamil Homelands) where ethnic cleansing of the regions claimed by them has been practiced. The LTTE-Tamil Tigers uses extortion, assassinations, suicide bombers,

		child soldiers, and terror attacks on civilians. The LTTE was banned by the Canadian Conservative Party as a terrorist organization. Parameswaran has put up a cover of being a taxi driver. Ball bearings, plastic granules, two wheelers weapons and cash etc have been captured with him.
Thambithurai, Prapaharan	-Prapa-	Prapa was the president of the Eelam Tamil Association of British Columbia in the 1990s, and collected more than $60,000 from federal grants, and much more from the Tamil Diaspora. He has been charged, since the LTTE was declared a Terrorist organization in Canada (in 2006). He has been charged with soliciting funds for the WTM and other LTTE fronts. "The WTM is an integral part of the LTTE strategy to raise funds for re-armament and to gain legitimacy as the sole representative of the Tamil people in the international community," the RCMP alleged in a court filing. But no charges had been laid until Thambithurai was arrested in March 2008. He is the first Tamil to be charged under the anti-terrorism laws of Canada.

Paskaralingam, Ramalingam	Paski	Controversial Sri lankan Tamil civil servant who was the right hand man of President Premadasa who collaborated with the LTTE to undermine the IKPF. Later, he is alleged to have been a clandestine agent of the LTTE inside the government. Minister Athulathmudali, who wished to impeach Premadasa claimed that SL was ruled by three P's, viz., Premadasa, Paskaralingam, and Prabhakaran, with Paskaralingam working for both sides! Internet write-ups claim that "Ramalingam Paskaralingam or Paski (as he is known in close circles) had become the financial chief of Sri Lanka during Premadasa's time. He

		had under his control the entire privatisation of the plantation sector - 500,000 acres of prime land to give to who ever he chose, 12 major govt. corporations to sell out to big business, and the discretion to give BOI status to any company he wished, including his favourite 5-star restaurant in Colombo." Earlier in his career he served as Permanent Secy. to Baduddeen Mohamad, Min. of Education, when Paskaralingam facilitated the opening of the Jaffna University Campus. The following article summarizes the "talk-about town" associated with him. MAHARAJAS, Paskaralingam - Treachery in Sri Lanka
Pasupathi, Siva	-	Retired former Attorney General (AG) of Sri Lanka, now living in Australia. He was in Oslo for the planned last set of talks (albeit it never occurred) to represent LTTE, and assisted the Tigers in drafting the ISGA (Interim self-government agreement). Many have pointed out that he is an example proving that Tamils were, and are able to reach high positions in Sri Lanka. So also Narapalasingham, and the list of distinguished Tamils show cased by the "TamilNation" (see at the bottom of this list)
Pathmanathan Selvarasan	KP, K.P. Kumaran "Kazhuthai" (donkey) known as "Tharmalingam Shanmugam Kumaran" in India	most senior remaining LTTE leader in July 2009 captured on Aug 5th 2009. His post-LTTE program is seen on his website: LTTE Dept. of International Relations. He was to be the "Thalamai Seyalar", i.e., literally translated, "Chief Secretary" of the post-LTTE organization. He is on the wanted list of the Interpol but seems to have important contacts with the Norwegian and other government heads. It was discovered that KP had a bank account in the Boomiputra Bank in Malaysia. On investigation it was found that he had at least 1562 accounts in different countries and many illegal passports. He is a native of Myliddy in Jaffna, was born on April 6th 1955. He is an old student of Nadeswara College, Kankesanthurai and Mahajana College ,Thellippalai. KP was at one time (till 2002) the chief arms procurer of the LTTE. He also supervised overseas tiger branches and fund raising campaigns of the LTTE. He was opposed

		by Thamilselvan and Manivannan (Castro). He was undermined in 2002. Married a Thai in 2003. Restored to power in 2008. KP agreed to cooperate with the Rajapaksa government, and in return the govt. provided KP the facilities to create an NGO for tapping into his diaspora contacts and collect money to help the IDPs and the devastated tamil community. In effect, KP is once again doing what he did for Prabhakaran, i.e., channelling funds from Diaspora groups tile the TDD (Tamil diaspora for dialogue). The NGO proposed by KP, and sponsored by the govt. is said to be called NERDO, i.e., North-east rehabilitation & development organization, with the e-mail and web address as info@nerdo.lk/www.nerdo.lk. Its main office is situated at No 10, 1st Lane, Kathiresu Road, Vairavaputiyankulam, Vavuniya (Vannimaava) A number of ex-LTTE country leaders have agreed to collaborate with KP and visited KP and the IDP camps in June 2010. Dayn Jayatilleke was one of his ministers. Later Perumal declared unilateral Eelam (independence) in March 1990, and when things did not work out, took refuge in India with the IKPF, further enhancing his reputation as an Indian agent. He and his family lived in Madhya Pradesh, and in Ajmer, Rajasthan since 1990. His father was an Indian Tamil, while his mother was from Jaffna. He was a young economics lecturer in the Jaffna university in the 1980s, but had been imprisoned in the 1980s during the Sirimavo regime for his EPRLF militant activities. He was the leader of the leader of Eelam People's Revolutionary Liberation Front (EPRLF). with support from Suresh Premachandran. The LTTE planned to kidnap V Perumal in 2008 but failed, as detailed in LTTE's Tamil Nadu intelligence chief caught. Perumal has returned briefly to Jaffna in 1999, and for the 2010 parliamentary elections. Pollone, Frank	-	US congressman, new Jersey, seems to have (2006) advocated autonomy for Tamils.
Poopalapillai, David	Poopa	"National spokesperson", Canadian Tamil congress and LTTE front man. based in Toronto. He takes part in TV and radio debates, and in defending illegal asylum-seekers etc. During the 2009 April-May pro-LTTE protests, Poopalapillai was very active. The "Hill times" (Otatw) reported that "David Poopalapillai, a spokesperson for the Canadian Tamil Congress, said over the past weeks his group has met with Conservative MPs Peter Kent, Paul Calandra (Oak Ridges-Markham, Ont.), James Lunney (Nanaimo-Alberni, B.C.), Lois Brown (Newmarket-Aurora, Ont.), Bloc MP Jean Dorion (Longueuil-Pierre-Boucher, Que.), Liberal MPs Albina Guarnieri (Mississauga East-Cooksville, Ont.), Rob Oliphant (Don Valley West, Ont.), Kirsty Duncan (Etobicoke North, Ont.), Borys Wrzesnewskij (Etobicoke Centre, Ont.) and Alan Tonks (York South-Weston, Ont.) among others. Mr. Poopalapillai said the protests on Parliament Hill attracted the attention and concern of Canadians, but did not attract the government's."
Peiries, Vilani	-	Pro-LTTE journalist. This writer's postings contain statements of the form the Rajapakse government intensified its war against the LTTE in which thousands of civilians were killed and maimed, or the security forces continue to hold at least 11,700 young Tamil men and women indefinitely without charge as "terrorist suspects" . Given the 300,000 IDPs freed from the clutches of the LTTE, 11,700/300,000 is 0.039, a very small fraction, and the claim that the govt. hopes to "indefinitely hold" is unsubstantiated. The US and Britain held their war captives without trial for over five to 10 years, and the delays in the court system in Sri Lanka are such that a six to one year delay is typical of the speed of the Attorney General's dept. This should not be attributed to deliberate policy by the govt, without further evidence.

Ponnambalam, Kumar	G. G. Ponnambalam	He is the son of G. G. Ponnambalam who died in Malaya in 1977, and Kumar has retained the father's initials, and sometimes wrote articles signed as such. He has a son, Gajan G. Ponnambalam whose initials are also G. G. (Ponnambalam). Gajan is a member of the Tamil National Alliance (TNA) which was an LTTE-proxy party. Kumar himself was a TNA member of parliament. He was assassinated under mysterious circumstances discussed in Victor Ivan's book ("Chavura Raejina"). He was made a posthumous "Maamanthar" by Prabhakaran. Kumar Ponnambalam clamored extensively regarding "Sinhala oppression of Tamils, mass graves, discrimination and how the Government is allegedly killing Tamils and bombing them. Kumar regarded other democratic Tamil parties as "quislings" and demanded separation, but he would agree to "Thimpu". He claimed Sinhalese colonization of Tamil homelands and ethnic cleansing. He claimed that ethnic cleansing had begun around 1920, before independence, under the British. Such claims had been made by G.G.Ponnambalam in front of the Soulbury commission and rejected. Kumar claimed that "Thamil Eelam" had existed in ancient Sri Lanka". He defended the silence of the Tamils and their lack of condemnation of the act when Neelan Thiruchelvam (Neelakandan Thiruchelvam) was assassinated (on 29th July 1999).

Pottu Amman, Vedyarasan	Shanmugalingam Sivashankar	"Irathap-pottu" or "bloody thilaks" (red thilaks) obtained by cutting the thumb and placing the thumb on the forehead were part of the political ritual of the TULF in its heady days. "Amman" means uncle in Jaffna as well as in Batticaloe.

		Secretive head of the Intelligence Unit of the LTTE, and its Black-Tiger suicide unit for 21 years. He had his training in the Vadayanam camp in Tamil Nadu in the early 1980s. He grew up in the Ariyalai(Aariyaala) -Naayanmaarkattu area. Shivashankar (Pottu) studied at Maheswari Vidyalayam, Canageratnam MMV (Stanley College) and Jaffna Hindu Colleg. Pottu was with Prabhakaran already in 1983, and sometimes acted as the leaders bodyguard. He was a ruthless killer assigned to eliminating "traitors" and also organizing the clandestine operations in the Tamil Nadu coastal areas. The framing and elimination of the mahaththaya cadre was also entrusted to him. He was responsible for the assassination of sam and kala Thambimuttu, Politicians of of Batticaloa, right near the Canadian High Commission. The Batticaloe leader Karuna Amman and Pottu Amman were also hostile to each other. At first he was believed to be killed on 18th May 2009 along with Prabhakaran. However, his corpse has not been found. More details are given in an article by DBSJeyaraj

Col. Ram	-	Perhaps a co-chair of the executive committee of the post-LTTE organization Amparai-Batticaloa LTTE military commander who together with Col Nagulan remained loyal to Prabhakaran after the Karuna split. He is a KP-loyalist.
Dr. S. Ramdoss	-	Pro-LTTE Tamil Nadu politician and a leader of the Pattali Makkal Kadchchi. The Vanniyar Sangam, a caste based party that aimed to lobby for the community in the northern and parts of the western districts of Tamil Nadu, later became a full-fledged political party called the Pattali Makkal Katchi (PMK) with its founder leader S Ramadoss aligning with major parties like the DMK or the AIADMK in the State. The PMK in now with the AIADMK. (see Tamil nadu political Parties)
P. Ramaswamy	Prof. P. Ramaswamy -	Hard-core LTTE supporter and Tamil politician based in Malaysia. Deputy minster of Penanag state in 2010. He has been denied entry to India in 2010 when he attempted to come to the so called "Tamil Literary Festival". These "Tamil literary" festivals have been highly politicized events, where the first one in Jaffna let to riots and deaths, instigated by the then young but brazen LTTE youths, and stupid retaliation by police not trained in dealing with terrorism.
Rasalingam, Sebastian	-	Anti-LTTE writer who contributes mainly to the Island Newspaper and the Sri Lanka Guardian. A low caste Jaffna Tamil born in the 1930s, he seems to have been forced to carry a low stool from class to class as the standard chairs and benches were meant for "high-caste" children. Then he lived in Mannar and Hatton where he marries an Indian Estate Tamil. Finally he moves to Colombo and "escapes" the "imprisonment" from the prejudices of Tamil society. He regards the TULF and its boys (i.e, LTTE), as a means developed by the High-Caste Tamil society to continue to rule he

		poor Tamils. He claims that the discrimination meted out to the ordinary Tamils by the upper-crust Tamils is far more intense than the TULF claims of discrimination of the Tamils by the Sinhalese. Rasalingam's main thesis is that the Casteism of the Tamils (the dominant ideology of P. Ramanathan) was replaced by the Racism of Ponnambalam and Chelvanayagam. This apartheid like doctrine of "Exclusive Tamil Homelands", launched in the Maradana declaration of 1949, and later in Vadukkoddai (Batakotte) was made politically acceptable when the "sinhala only" legislation and its fall out could be used as a battle cry. Rasalingam's articles are strongly against Eelam, devolution, 13th amendment etc. Wakeley Paul the Tamil lawyer from New Jersey, wrote an article against Rasalingam claiming that Rasalingam deserves a knighthood from the Sinhala Buddhists! (Paul was never made a Maamanthar by Prabhakaran.)
Ratnam Master	-	Headed the specialized Radha Brigade which provided personal security to Prabhakaran and his family. He was a retired teacher, and a head of Intelligence. He was also responsible for planning the attack on the Anuradhapura air base.
Father Ratnapala, Philip	-	Came to Ottawa in 1972 and subsequently a spokesman for the' LTTE.
Rathnasabapathi, Narendran	Naren,	key figure of the LTTE's foreign procurement arm with diversified businesses in real estate and share-markets. Allegedly involved in many illegal arms procurement deals, Naren has been deported by Singaporean authorities several times.
Ratnavale, Roy	-	Vice President, Canadian Tamil Congress. An investment fund manager based in Vancouver. He writes articles espousing the LTTE cause. It has been alleged that CTC funds or other monies collected by LTTE organizations may be invested with him. Roy Ratnavale has been a spokesman supporting the boat-load of Tamil refugee claimants who arrived in Victoria in November 2009. These regugee claimants are alleged to be ex-LTTE cadre or their associates. Ratnavale's claims in favour of the illegal would-be immigrants have been refuted by an ex-ambassador of the Canadian government in an article written to the National Post.

		See also, the article by Rasalingam On 17th Nov 2009, Roy Ratnavale has written to our editors/service-providers and complained that "It has been brought to my attention recently that the above link contains malicious, slanderous, unsubstantiated information as it relates to my name (see entry "Roy Ratnavale.") The details relating to my name are incorrect, unfounded and designed to tarnish my reputation; as such libelous in nature and may have serious legal implications to the content provider." We have written to Ratnavale asking him to furnish a corrected profile about him, indicating what items are incorrect, so that we can review the material. We would like to know the answers to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is he, or is he not, the vice president of of the Canadian Tamil Congress? As far as we are aware, the answer is YES. ○ Has he, or has he not, written articles supporting the separatist cause of the Tamil Tigers? Look at the Sri Lanka Guardian and we see that the answer is YES. ○ Has he, or has he not, invested money from Tamil investors or organizations, and does he know the full origin of such funds? Has there been no such allegations? The article by Rasalingam a fellow Tamil, already makes such suggestions. ○ What are the names of the investment management firms and other firms that Ratnavale is involved in? ○ Is it not in the interest of the public to know these facts?
Raviraj	-	TNA parliamentarian elected in 2004 and assassinated later by the LTTE
Ravishankar, Kanagarajah	Sangili	SEE full entry under Kanagarajha Allegedly an ex-sea Tiger. He has been accused of transporting would be illegal immigrants. He is alleged to be involved with the 76 would be immigrants who arrived in Victoria, BC, in 2009. Ravishankar studied navigation in Canada and became a Canadian citizen. Associate of Nediyan (nediyavan) of Norway

Root Ravi	?	One time head of the LTTE's "economic development organization" TEEDOR, a front organization for fund raising. He lives in London, and is opposed to KP.
Refugees	Immigrant claimants	LTTE organizations have been active in pushing Tamil refugee claimants who arrive by ship or plane or by other means at an international border. Australia, Canada, EU countries have been in the news for a longtime. Countries like China have not had such difficulties due to more strict regulations, and because many of these "refugees" are economic refugees, although they claim to be political refugees. People-smuggling operatives work from Sri Lanka, Tamil Nadu, Thailand, Indonesia, South Africa etc. A 2010 report from Chennai is illuminating. Abduction of Shanmugavel in Chennai
Regi, K. P.	-	He is executive director of the Tamil Rehabilitation Organization (TRO) a front organization for fund raising which is now banned in most countries. He lives in London, and is opposed to KP.
Rudrakumaran, Visuvanathan	-	New York attorney at Law and son of an ex-Mayor of Jaffna. He participated in the LTTE delegation of the Norwegian sponsored Peace Process. He has pushed the LTTE claim that "the SL government practices Genocide of the Tamils". He has spearheaded the attempt to lift the US ban on the LTTE. He is chairman of the "provisional transnational government of Tamil Eelam". Eelam in exile provisional Transnational Government of Tamil Eelam (PTGTE)
Ryan, Joan	-	British Labour MP, Enfield North. Participating in a meeting of a pro-LTTE front, she called for expelling Sri Lanka from the commonwealth.

He also claims that Edmund Samarakkdoy is his uncle. Asian Tribune article about Brian Seneviratna An interesting LTTE video footage (YouTube) shows Brian Seneviratna addressing an LTTE rally. LTTE video footage
Senthkumar, K	-	British Tamil Forum activist and hard-core LTTE activist.
Selvakoon, Meera	-	a treasurer of the Canadian Tamil congress, believed to be an LTTE front organization. Meera is a GP practicing in Richmond Hill, Ont.
Selvasivan, Darshikas	-	Coalition for Tamil Elections Canada spokes-person for the Dec. 19th Poll. The majority of polling stations in Canada for the referendum are in the GTA and Southern Ontario. However, polls have been opened in most other major Canadian cities, including in Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver. About 100K people are expected to vote.
Sherman, Brad	-	US congressman, California Democrat had supported the LTTE separatist/terrorist agenda. Sri Lankan expatriates handed over a petition which Mr. Sherman willingly accepted but left when the Sri Lankan expatriates questioned his support to Tamil Tigers and about accepting funds from its US front organization, the TRO sometime ago. The TRO and the LTTE are now a banned organization in the US.
Siddarthan, D.	-	Leading member of PLOTE (Peoples Liberation Organization of Tamil Eelam) which is anti-LTTE but it is itself an armed Eelamist party. He has support in the Vannimava (Vavuniya) region.

Sivanesan	-	TNA parliamentarian elected in 2004 and assassinated later by the LTTE.
Solheim, Erik	Eric Solheim	Controversial Norwegian foreign minister of the Socialist Left, and unsuccessful "peace broker" (or rather "Fred's braenningar!?" in the Sri Lankan conflict (and several other conflicts). He fell under the influence of Anton Balasingham, the chief ideologue of the LTTE and largely accepted much of Balasingham's beliefs. Solheim tried to craft a "Federal solution", with asymmetric autonomy given to the Tamils. He probably imagined that Prabhakaran could be pressurized to accept something less than Eelam (exclusively Tamil homelands in the Northeast of Sri Lanka, with sovereign power). In this he was wrong. Following the concept of Tamil sovereignty he attempted to "equate" the democratically elected Sri Lankan government" with the so-called "de-facto LTTE regime". In effect, Solheim chose to ignore the fact that the LTTE had come to power by murdering its more moderate Tamil opponents. In reality the civil administration in the LTTE-controlled areas (e.g., supply of food, running of hospitals, schools etc.) was actually conducted and paid for by the Sri Lankan government. The LTTE ran a system of taxation to raise money, and make-shift "tiger-justice" courts which were used to control any opposition. The A9 main road was heavily taxed by the LTTE and was a source of funds for its war chest until it was closed by the SL government. No anti-LTTE opinions or newspapers were permitted inside the LTTE "de-facto" territory. Solheim also ignored the rights of Muslims, Hill-country Tamils and Eastern Tamils who

did not accept the claim of the LTTE that it is the "sole representative" of all the Tamils. Solheim and other Nordics are alleged to have bent backwards in ignoring the human-rights violations of the LTTE. The cease-fire agreement (CFA) crafted largely by Solheim and Balasingham was accepted by Ranil Wickremasinghe, the Sri Lankan leader, without revealing the details of the document or tabling it in parliament. Japan was a co-signatory to the CFA. The LTTE used the CFA to rearm and get ready for the Eelam IV war, but had to face the loss of Karuna, the Eastern province Tamil commander who broke away from the LTTE. Karuna began a clandestine collaboration with the government forces. Mean while, the CFA had been violated by both sides, with the LTTE having ten times more violations. The LTTE assassination of the Foreign minister Kadirgamar, and high ranking army officers like Mutalif also occurred in spite of the CFA. Similarly, a notable increase in child conscription occurred. A few months after the coming into power of Mahinda Rajapaksa in November 2005, the LTTE attempted to assassinate the army commander Sarath Fonseka. An attempt at the life of the defense secretary Gotabhaya Rajapaksa was also made, even though Rajapaksa offered peace and allowed Daya Master, a noted LTTE leader to come to Colombo for hospital treatment. Two abortive "peace talks" were also hosted by Solheim between the LTTE and Mahinda Rajapaksa's government. The Eelam IV war actually began in in July 2006 with the LTTE forcing the closure of the Mavil Oya (Mavil Aru) sluice gates near Gokanna (Trincomalee), depriving some 15,000 farmers of water. The CFA was revoked by Mahinda Rajapaksa in 2007 by which

		time it was a dead letter anyway. After the defeat and killing of Prabhakaran, Solheim had clandestine meetings with K. Pathmanathan the LTTE arms dealer who was on the wanted list of the Interpol. Pathmanathan himself was captured by Sri lankan agents, on the 5th of August, allegedly in Malaysia, and brought to Sri Lanka on the 6th of August 2009. Rev. Soundaranayagam, Thomas	-	Bishop of Jaffna and strong Tamil Nationalist who has worked with the LTTE and criticized the government in the post-LTTE era. Some Tamil writers as well as Sinhalese have accused the Bishop of strong complicity with the separatists. See Catholic Church, an ally of Tamil Tiger terrorists ? Sri Lanka Guardian article
Sambanthan, R.	-	TNA leader, general secy. of TULF in 2001 when the TNA was formed.
Siva Sangary	-	TGTE rep, Noth-West USA: He gives his bio as: My name is Siva Sangary BS, P.Eng. I am a middle aged Tamil American who graduated from A & M University in Texas in 1986 and currently working as IT/Networking Engineer. I am married and have two young daughters. I am very much disturbed about the way the racist government of Sri Lanka and their massive military juntas perpetrates so much human right violation on Tamil minorities since 1950s and would like work tirelessly to bring the problems faced by our brethren back home to the international arena to seek remedy. I am an ardent supporter for creation of a separate State for Tamils which is our traditional home land for thousands of years.

Sathyapava, Asirvatham	-	Arrested in Thailand in 2007 for smuggling arms for the LTTE, together with Thevarajah Sashiharan and U. G. Gunapala., to be dispatched to Mooladoova (Mullaitivu)
Santhiralingam, Ruban	Jayruban ? -	Carleton University Alumni?, CTC-LTTE activist
Seevaratnam, Emden	-	LTTE financial dealer and manager of the Muththumari Amman temple in Tooting in London.
Ranjan Selva	-	TGTE southern rep. he gives his bio in 2010 as: "I am an entrepreneur having built and run several businesses over the last 30 years in the state of Texas. I live in the Dallas-Forth Worth metroplex with my wife and two children. I have always been involved in "our freedom struggle" going back 25 years when I helped establish a Thamil Sangam in the DFW metroplex along with my dear friend Rudra while he was a graduate student at SMU. Over the years I have helped many of our young Tamil men and women establish their life here in the US. While many escaped persecution back home and struggled to make a new life here in the US I have helped them with jobs, education and other basic needs. I have tirelessly campaigned over the years taking our cause to many public servants and representatives at both the local and national levels. In a time when the world is shying away from supporting the legitimate freedom struggle of our people I think it is more critical now than ever before to come together and rally around this democratic and transparent process of the Trans National Government of Tamil Ealam. In the coming months I expect to work hard with my colleagues and many subject matter experts to bring forth our struggle for justice, freedom and ultimately nationhood to the world."

Shalk, Peter	-	German Theologian, Tamil scholar and Academic now working in Upsala, Sweden. He has been a strong admirer of Prabhakaran, going to the extent of extolling the Blood and suicide culture of the LTTE. He was consistently supported by "Tamil studies conferences" financed largely by LTTE supporters, and this was partially responsible for moving him into the midstream of LTTE ideology. Sebastian Rasalingam, a Tamil dissident had taken issue with Peter Shalk's "sanguinary" writings. See Tamil Nationalism becomes the ethno-suicide of Sri Lankan Tamils
Shanmugarajaha,Satrubarajah	Ruby	Caught in Credit card fraud in Norway, 2008 together with Sureswaran Thuraiingham, Kajamugan Parameswaran, Selvakumar Yoganathan, Theepakanth Aiyathurai and Sriranjjan Sivananeswaran. See also M. Pathmathas (Thailand), Balakumar Poluthurai (south Africa)
Siddiqui, ?	-	He was General Fonseka's cook, and an LTTE mole who facilitated the attack on Fonseka in 2006.
Sinna, Ranjith	"Maran"	He was Nediyan's chief negotiator. He had worked as an aide or secretary for former tiger political adviser Anton Balasingham. Note that another Ranjith" was head of the pro-LTTE radio "International Broadcasting Corporation" in London.
Athiyan Silva	-	Pro-Eelam Journalist and deviationist-Marxist [i.e., International Committee of the Fourth International (ICFI)]. He is a supporter of the "Socialist Equality party" and envisages, wittingly or unwittingly, a race-based, divided Sri lanka as a Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka and (Tamil) Eelam as part of the Union of Socialist Republics in South Asia and internationally.

Siththarthan, Dharmalingam	-	A former parliamentarian and Peoples Liberation Organization of Tamil Eelam (PLOTE) leader. He is currently a supporter of the 13th amendment plus. His group lost to the TNA in Vavuniya (Vannimaava) in August 2009 by a small number of votes.
M.K.Sivajilingham	sivaji	TNA-TELO politician and independent Presidential candidate 200-2010 election. He supports a federal approach. His proposer was N.Srikantha.Sivananthn Kisshor, (the Vanni electoral district Parliamentarian) who has publicly announced of his support to President Mahinda Rajapaksa. Sivajilingam is one of the early members of the Thangathurai-Kuttimani, pre-Prabakaran era and is probably the only early militant still active in Tamil politics. He campaigned against his uncle Mothilal Nehru in support of oppressed caste candidates.
Sivananthan Kisshor	-	TNA parliamentarian who has come out in support of the Rajapaksa government. He is the the Vanni electoral district Parliamentarian who publicly announced his support to Mahinda Rajapaksa. in the 2009 Dec-2010 Presidential election.
Gobi Sivanthan	-	A businessman from Hayes, west London and LTTE activist. Instead of admitting the role played by the LTTE in forcing Tamils into human shields and to fight against the Sri Lankan army, Sivanthan and others (e.g., Surin Surendiran of the "British Tamils) claim that the SL govt. deliberately targeted civilians. Sivantha has launched a protest march from London to Geneva. In February 2009 another British-based Tamil burned himself to death outside the UN complex claiming to draw attention to the battles in Sri Lanka.

Sivalingam, Harini	-	Media activist of the Canadian Tamil Congress (CTC) which is a front organization of the LTTE based in Toronto.
Sivapalan Sinnadurai	Dr.	He was the personal physician of Prabhakaran from 1997 onwards. He was arrested at the Omathai road block in 2009 by a team of police officers headed by Sub Inspector Abdeen.
Sivaparan Perinpanayagam	Nediyavan, Nediyawan	He is probably a head of the "seyalahangal" (division) of the post-LTTE organization responsible for Diaspora activities. Joined LTTE at age 18. Went to Russia for "studies". Henchman of Tamilselvan, and went to Thailand for the 4th LTTE-GOSL talks. Married to Sivagowri Shanthamohan, whose uncle was Gnanendramohan, an LTTE activist killed in Jaffna by the army. Sivaparan lives in Norway since 2005. He is in the "anti-KP" faction.
Sivakumaran P.	Ponnudurai Sivakumaran, "Eelam's Bhagat Singh"	He was a high-school drop out who became an early militant, even before the formation of the LTTE. When caught at a bank robbery in 1984, he killed himself with cyanide to prevent capture by the police. This was the inspiration that gave Prabhakaran the idea of "kuppi" for his future suicide cadre. S. J. V. Chelvanayagam and other members of the TULF had been grooming Sivakumaran as a leader of the "boys", as far back as 1975. See Article by Michael Roberts
Sivaram, Dharmaratnam	Taraki	Daily Mirror columnist and a founding Editor of the Tamilnet from 1998. He was originally a member of People's Liberation Organization of Tamil Eelam (PLOTE), which was formed following a split from the LTTE. He remained with

		PLOTE until 1990, when he took to journalism and became well known as Taraki and wrote pro-LTTE articles. He was an original supporter of Uma Maheswaran. He also attempted to disagree with the LTTE and also uncompromisingly attacked Karuna of the TMVP. He was a native of Batticaloa. He was found killed in April 2008. He was introduced in 1982 to young American anthropologists like Mark Whitaker (Drew University) Dennis McGilvray (Colorado University), and Patricia Lawrance (by the pro-LTTE by Father Harry Miller, an American Jesuit missionary from New Orleans who has lived in Sri Lanka since September 1948. Miller was a teacher and rector at St Michael's College, Madakalapuwa (Batticaloa). The nature of Sivaram's links with American anthropologists, and the nature of their their links with the US information gathering services have been raised by concerned intellegance experts. Margaret Trawick from the Massey University of New Zealand ws another associate of the Sivaram group. Sivaram was believed to be the the columnist "Tarski" with a "5th columnist" edge. The New York-based CIA front "The Committee to Protect Journalists" (CPJ) to wrote to President Chandrika Kumarantunga, "condemning such accusations". The CPJ complained that the accusations were without any "substantive evidence", tarnishing and endangering Sivaram and his family. Ironically, Sivram probably became a victim of inter-Tamil rivalries in the East rather than those insinuated by the CPJ.
Sivarajah, vaseekaran	Kobu, sassi	LTTE intellegence - possibly related to Castro and lived in the Vanni area.
Ramesh Sivarupan	-	Paris operative of the Rudrakumar (US based) faction of the post-LTTE Diaspora Elam group. He was murdered in May 2010. Thambiah Ganesh and Kuppilan Ravi, believed to be members of the Nediyan group of the pro-LTTE faction have been taken into custody by the police in Paris in connection with the abduction and murder of Sivarupan in June 2010.

Sivasamy, Prem	-	Activist of the Ottawa Chapter of the CTC, lives in Barhaven since 2001. He immigrated from UK in '75 to Edmonton
Sivasiththamparam, Murugesu	TULF president at the formation of the TNA, 2001.	He was nominated to parliament in 2001 via the TNA national list, and claimed that he was "prepared to serve under Prabhakaran". He died in 2002.
Sivathamby, Karthigesu., Prof.	-	Tamil nationalist who became close to the LTTE ideology. Senior Lecturer in Tamil at Vidyodaya University, and was released to work at the newly formed Jaffna University in 1974. His academic work is on the caste system in the Batticaloa area. He took a controversial position with respect to the Tamil studies conference, Coimbatore 2010.
Soosai	Thillayampalan Sivanesan, "Sirappu Thalopathy"	He is believed to have been killed on 18 May 2009 when a rocket hit an armoured car that he was using in an escape bid. Special commander of the Sea Tigers; one-time head of the Vaedimuraekiya (Vadamarachchy) LTTE division. The EPRLF leader Suresh Premachandran had ordered his killing, but he was released by Sugi, a middle-level leader during the IPKF period.
"Sunanthiran"	-	The TULF newspaper of the 1970s which consistently branded Duraiappah (Durayappah) as a "Traitor", long before he was assassinated.

See place.names In 2009 He gives the following reasons beside advances in military technology, for the failure of the LTTE: "The reasons for LTTE's military debacle include a natural cause (big tsunami of Dec. 2004), and four human causes (trust-busting betrayal by Karuna, tripe propaganda of Tamil traitors, terrible norms set by the "Little" Bush administration officials (e.g., Ambassador Blake) and the antagonism of IBMs (i.e., Indian Brahamin Mafia). The Tamil "Traitors" listed by SriKantha are as follows: " A list of these traitors include, Lakshman Kadirgamar, the Hoole brothers, Rohini Hensman, Rajani Thiranagama and D.B.S. Jeyaraj. The themes of tripe propaganda included child warriors, human right violations and militarization of the Tamil society. For survival reasons, the same Tamil traitors turned a blind eye to the deeds of the Sri Lankan government. The worst

		culprit in this category was Lakshman Kadirgamar". see "Traitor" Tragedy It seems to us that the "Tamilnation" intellectuals condoned the assassination of "Traitors" like Neelan Thiruchelvam and later, Kadirgamar, and presumably, the political killings that started with the removal of Duraiappah. Subramaniyan, Parameswaran	-	Subramaniyan launched a hunger strike in front of the British parliament. The hunger strike lasted till June 16th. Police mounted a 24-hour presence in Parliament Square from April 6 to June 17. Several hundred protesters were at the site every day with the numbers swelling to thousands each time there were fresh reports of escalated fighting during the Sri Lankan government's offensive to end its 25-year war against the LTTE. subsequently it was claimed that the ``hunger strike'', which was the nucleus of the protest, was faked. Two newspapers claimed Subramaniyan was eating hamburgers delivered from MacDonald's, as caught in clandestine police cameras. Faked Hunger strike reported in the Daily Mail This was challenged in court by Subramaniyan, and the newspapers were unable to defend themselves.

Tamil Nadu Political Parties.

(this writeup reflects the position in Oct. 2009)

These parties have at times supported the LTTE, or even opposed them. However, a number of fringe parties, and specific politicians have always supported the LTTE. In the post-LTTE era the attention has been directed to organizing anti-Sri Lankan activity, claims of Genocide, IDP imprisonment etc.

There are some 50 political parties in tamil nadu, based largely on caste and regional distinctions. The major parties, DMK and AIADMK both compete for favours from the central government where the Congress party, the BJP(Bharatiya Janata Party) etc. depend on forming workable coalitions with smaller regional parties, Marxist parties etc.

DMK (Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam) groupings, lead by Muthuvel

Karunanidhi:Jananayaga Munnetra Kazhagam, Veera Vanniyar Perava, Several Dalit outfits - Thirumavalavan's VCK, Dr K Krishnasamy's Puthiya Tamilagam, S K Tamilarasan's Republican Party of India and Valasai Ravichandran's Arunthathi Makkal Katchi are with the DMK. New Justice Party leader A C Shanmugham, educationist, representing the Mudaliar community, would extend support to the DMK as the community members allegedly got a raw deal during the previous AIADMK regim. The potter community represented by Sema Narayanan, president of Tamil Nadu Pottery Workers (Kulala) Association and the Tamil Nadu Yadava Mahasabha represented by its State president M Gopalakrishnan, ex-CMD of Indian Bank have decided to back the DMK. Kongu Mandala Munnetra Peravai general secretary Easwaran, representing the Gounders in the State, would be willing to support a party that promises to help the community. Tamil Nadu Nadar Peravai leader N R Dhanapalan wanted to back the DMK provided it allowed toddy tapping.

AIADMK (Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam) groupings, led by Puratchi Thalaivi DR

JJayalalitha: Jayalalitha has been generally anti LTTE in her political stance, and supportive of Subramaniam Swamy of the Janatha party in this regard. The Vanniar Nala Sangham president, Mr. A. K. Natarajan, backs the AIADMK front (even if the PMK came to support the AIADMK). The PMK (Pattali Makkal Katchi) has support in the Vanniyar heartland. (See entry under PMK) Moovendhar Munnetra Peravai and All India Moovendar Munnani Kazhagam(AIMMK,Dr. Sethuraman is the president of the party. S. Esakkimuthu and P. Kazhuvan are the general secretary and treasurer. It called for a caste-based census and implementation of reservation on the basis of this census. Another resolution sought Most Backward Class status to Kallars, Maravars and Agamudiyars). The Jayalalitha-led AIADMK is one of the prospective allies BJP is wooing. Although AIADMK is very right-wing, the Communist Party of India-Marxist (CPM) and the Communist Party of India (CPI) have formed an electoral and potential governmental alliance with the All-India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam. The Andhra Pradesh-based Telugu Desam Party led by Chandra Babu Naidu, the TDP, is also a former ally of the BJP and is pro-AIADMK. In south tamilnadu AIADMK has been supported wholly by devar community parties from the days of M. G.Ramachandran.

		A heady cocktail of caste and politics by R. Rajagopal Marxist parties. These have been strongly pro-LTTE, while they often support right-wing, caste-based parties as well, depending on opportunist politics. The Leader of the communist party of India (CPI), Mr D. Thirumalavan was the Dalit MP who came with the delegation of 10 Indian MPs to visit the IDP camps. he alone condemned the Sri lankan government publicly.
TAPI	Tamil American Peace Initiative	This is another pro-LTTE front which claims " the destruction of Tamil communities and culture caused by 30 years of war; and to demand an end to the continuing oppression of Tamils on the island. It engages in propaganda against the Sri lankan government, calling for boycotts of Sri lankan products. They have not attempted to help the internally displaced Tamil people (IDP) in Sri lanka, as they prefer an aggravation of the conditions of the IDP would aid the political objectives of these separatist groups. Tamil National Alliance TNA	TNA -	The TNA was formed on 22 Oct.2001, loosely linking the TULF (Tamil United Liberation Front), the ATCT (All Ceylon Tamil Congress), TELO (Tamil Eelam Liberation Organization), and the EPRLF (Eelam Peoples Revolutionary Liberation Front), with signatures from the secys of the respective parties: R.Sambandan (TULF), N.Kumarakuruparan (ACTC) N. Srikantha (TELO) and K.Premachandran(EPRLF). The TNA was stronly backed by Colombo Tamils and professionals. The Tigers controlled the TNA via their Batticaloa leadership (Karuna and Karikalan) to give it a low status and to maintain its refusal to deal with democratic processes. Also, the LTTE had already killed TULF parliamentarians N. Thiruchelvam (1999), A. Thangathurai (1997), and also Sarojini Yogeswaran, P.

Mathimugarajah, etc. Anton Balasingham had warned Sambandan to "toe the line". Finally, except for Anandasangaree, all TNA politicians became puppet supporters of the LTTE and followed its dicta. The LTTE played an active role in nominating the TNA candidates for the 2004 elections. Thus the TNA returned 22 MPs in 2004 who were allowed no opposition by the Tigers. Tiger "volunteers" on motor bicycles enforced the vote they desired and intimidated all opposition. Meanwhile, a month before the April 2004 election, Vinyagamooerth Muraleetharan (Karuna), Rajan Sathiyamoorthy and their cadre revolted against the Tigers and broke ranks in Batticaloa. Rajan Sathiyamoorthy was assassinated by the Tigers, and fighting between the two groups commenced. The TNA continued to support the Tigers. Kingsly rajanayagam, a pro-Karuna man had got elected in Baticaloa. He was abducted by the Tigers and forced to resign, and was finally assassinated by the Tigers. Then their nominee, Mr. Ariyanendran of the LTTE-TNA was "appointed" to the vacated seat. The EU observers declared that the election was a blatant miscarriage. Douglass Devaananda began to call the TNA the "Tiger Nominated Agents". But the Chandrika Government legitimized their membership in parliament. Several were later eliminated by the LTTE, Karuna operatives or left the country. Now the party is led by Mr. R Sampanthan. The TNA had shelved the federalist option when

Prabhakaran rejected the Oslo discussions involving Balasingham. The active TNA members in 2009 are: Suresh Premachandran, Solomon Siril, S. Thuraiatnasingham, R. Sampanthan, Mavai Senathirajah, Gajendrakumar Ponnampalam, Pathmini Sithamparanathan and the chief candidate in Jaffna, 2009 Mudiyappu Remedias. TNA parliamentarians Kanagasapai, William Thomas and Ariyanethran engaged in the 2009 Jaffna election campaign. Mr. Sivasakthy Anandan and Kishore engaged in election campaign for ITAK in Vavuniya (Vannimaava)

Tamil National Alliance's so called "SMS leadership" is R. Sampanthan, Mavai S. Senathirajah, and Suresh Premachandran.

After the demise of the LTTE in May 2009, This LTTE-proxy party has moved closer to the government, since the Local elections in the North, after the demise of the LTTE. A unified TNA ?. However, during the 2010 presidential elections, the TNA pushed by Sambanthan et al., joined with the JVP and the UNP to support Sarath Fonseka, the strongly vocally anti-Tamil Army commander who turned against the President Mahinda Rajapaksa. Sivajilingama contested the presidential elections without the support of the TNA which did not unanimously toe the line of Sambandan. Sarath Fonseka earned a majority vote in the Tamil areas and lost very badly in the predominantly Sinhala areas. Fonseka's animosity to rajapaksa is based on his being sidelined by the government who suspected him to be plotting a coup d'etat , and being in league with hostile foreign powers. The 2010 April Manifesto of the TNA (which is fragmented in facing the election) seems to be a reaffirmation of the Thimpu proposals as well as the right to deal with foreign powers directly for a merged North-East. see TNA website for pictures etc. DBSJeyaraj on the TNA

"Canada's Tamil community has been among the LTTE's largest sources of funds, having contributed up to $10- to $12-million annually in past years," the report said. A copy of the report was released to National Post under the Access to Information Act. The RCMP began investigating LTTE fund raising efforts in Canada in 2002. Police believe the outfit raised money in Toronto and Montreal to finance weapons purchases, but investigators have never said the dollar figures were so high. "The LTTE through its many front organizations in other countries, including Canada, has conducted extensive fund raising and other activities to support its efforts in Sri Lanka," the report added. The tactics used to collect money were "often coercive," it said, naming the Toronto-based World Tamil Movement (WTM) as the outfit's leading front in Canada. "As such, the WTM has been instrumental in fund raising in Canada on behalf of the LTTE." Police searched the World Tamil Movement offices in Ontario and Quebec in 2006. Sittampalam, and Nehru Gunaratnam were interviewed and denied any fund collection. In 2009, the Government banned the group under the Anti-Terrorism Act. Federal lawyers are now in court trying to seize its properties and bank accounts. The organization has, however, denied any wrongdoing. The above is extracted SATP report
